

Sadler Seminar Series 2018-19
'The Archive after Cecil Roth: Jewish studies, cultural histories and the Cecil Roth Collection'

CONVERTS, FANATICS, AND GHOSTED PAMPHLETS: TRACKING THE ELUSIVE SABBATO NACHAMU

Dr Emily Michelson (Senior Lecturer in History, University of St Andrews)

joins us to discuss the contribution of the Cecil Roth collection to research on preaching and conversion in early modern Italy.

Date: Wednesday 6 February 2019, 16:00 – 18:00

Location: Brotherton Room, University of Leeds

There will be an opportunity for all attendees to view and handle original items from the Cecil Roth Collection.

The seminars aim at exploring some of the untapped strengths and hidden treasures of the multilingual collection of the historian Cecil Roth (1899-1970), and to place it in the context of the history of collecting Judaica and Jewish studies, before, during and after WW2 and the Holocaust.
