

The 23rd Ilkley Colloquium on Health Care Ethics

Saturday 17th January, 2015
Craiglands Hotel, Cowpasture Road, Ilkley

Programme

This year's conference programme is largely made up of home grown speakers, as usual, but we are very pleased to welcome some new speakers who will be less well known to more recent students and alumni. I hope that Jennifer and Christopher may at least pop in, which will again be an opportunity for many of us to catch up with them. Hopefully the range of topics is sufficiently enticing!

Programme

- 9.00 – 9.20 Arrival and registration with coffee.
- 9.20 – 10.30 Dr Gerald Lang PRHS, Leeds: Obstacles to Double Effect
- 10.45- 11.45 Dr Rob Lawlor IDEA Centre, Leeds: The irrelevance of the non-identity problem
- 11.45- 12.00 Tea and coffee break
- 12.00-1.15 Dr Carl Fox IDEA Centre, Leeds: Voluntariness and End of Life Decisions
- 1.15 – 2.15 Lunch
- 2.15-4.15 Walk/shop
4. 15 – 4.30 Tea and Coffee Break
- 4.30 – 5.45 Sean Sinclair, PhD Student. IDEA Centre, Leeds: On the duty to rescue
- 5.45 – 7.00 Dr Simon Fokt IDEA Centre, Leeds: Are drugs bad?
7. 30 – 10.00 Conference Dinner

Costs:

Visit our website for the cost of attending www.idea.leeds.ac.uk, there is a student reduced rate for those in higher education and also not in full-time work and payment can be made online.

We have arranged a Colloquium attendee accommodation rate with the Craiglands Hotel of £69, please contact the hotel for further details or alternatively contact Liz Melsom e.melsom@leeds.ac.uk at the Centre.