

School of Philosophy and IDEA CETL, University of Leeds
The Seventeenth Ilkley Colloquium on Health Care Ethics Saturday 17th January, 2009.

Craiglands Hotel, Cowpasture Road. The hotel is five minutes walk from Ilkley station. Go up the hill and look out on the right.

This year's conference programme is entirely made up of home grown speakers, though Jennifer and Christopher will be in attendance which will be an opportunity for many of us to catch up with them. Hopefully the range of topics is sufficiently enticing!

Draft Programme.

9.00. Arrival, registration, coffee.

9.20 – 10.30 Dr. Jamie Dow, Research Fellow, IDEA CETL: "Filial Obligation"

10.40- 11.45 Dr Gerald Lang, Lecturer in Philosophy: "Can the Non-Identity Problem be Solved?"

Coffee

12.00-1.00 Dr Georgia Testa, Lecturer in Medical Ethics, Medical School, Philosophy and IDEA CETL: "Research Ethics"

LUNCH.

2.15-4.15 Walk/shop

4. 15. Tea or Coffee

4.30 – 5.30 Paul Affleck: Project Manager GenoMEL, MAHCE 2007: "Genetic Ethics"

5.30 – 6.45 Dr Rob Lawlor Research Fellow, IDEA CETL: "Speciesism"

7. 30 – 10.00 CONFERENCE DINNER

Approximate Costs, to be confirmed:

Registration £5 to help cover our expenses

Hotel Charge £40 (or £54 if staying for Conference Dinner.)

All payable on the day

For those wishing to stay on, B&B accommodation may be available at the hotel

Please contact Christopher Megone, c.b.megone@leeds.ac.uk, on 0113 343

3278, or Kathryn Dalby, to confirm your attendance as soon as possible, as we hope for a good attendance from alumni this year.