

Driving to the University of Leeds

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS

CHOOSING YOUR CAR PARK

Free car parking will be available at Woodhouse Moor Car Park on the following dates:
12 February, 19 February, 26 February,
4 March, 11 March, 18 March

Security staff will be on duty.
Please note that this car park closes at 6pm

Woodhouse Moor is 10 minutes walk from the main entrance to the University and up to 20 minutes walk from some departments. Please leave enough time to complete your journey.

For all other dates, please use one of the city's public car parks; the nearest to campus is the Woodhouse Lane NCP multi-storey car park.

Please go to www.leadstravel.info and select 'car parking' for real-time car park information. Please be aware that popular city centre car parks may become full by mid-morning so please check to avoid disappointment.

Blue badge holders can pre-book on-campus parking for £7.00 by contacting the school they are visiting. Please note that parking on campus is only available to permit holders and pre-booked visitors.

Avoid traffic and parking congestion by using a park and ride. More information is available at:
www.wymetro.com/park-and-ride

Finding the School of Design

To find the School of Design enter the campus through the pedestrian archways to the left of the Parkinson Building (at the main University entrance).

Continue along the pedestrian area, passing the red brick Baines Wing and then the Great Hall on your right. Once past the Great Hall, do not enter Clothworkers' Court but continue on until you find the entrance to the School of Design on your right, where you will be greeted on your arrival.
